

Need You

Stormzy

Visible

No doubt need I suppose
I need your luv in on physical
Oh why do I get it wrong
I fall for you, I get up
Fallin for you wasn't part of my plan
U couldn't understand
I call your phone, I hang up
Fallin for you wasn't part of my plan
(Oh baby, oh baby)

I can't explain it, I don't mean to roll your dice
Outta sight not outta mind
I can't resist, couldn't find a perfect six
Girl you make it hard to hide
Hide that I need you baby
Hide that I need you baby

I heard the news bout the guy you're dating
You see my new girl
She's firebabeing
You don't care much
And I ain't hating
You said you need time
But I ain't waiting
The balls in your court
Ite I fall short
You said we'll be friends
It's all talk
I know all your flaws
I know your four walls
You know my (mm mm)
Cah girl it's all yours
I'm being silly but you know I had you for life
I'll get you any bag you like
C'mon that's light
Hoping that you're bumping into me when you're planning your night
I'm just glad you're alright
Mad how I move
When you chat to me rude
Shouting down my phone
I'm coming back sending food
But the catch 22
Is that I'm a catch too
You can never be my opp
But if I ever catch you then its

I can't explain it, I don't mean to roll your dice
Hide that I need you baby
