

So Far So Good

Story of the Year

Never for one single second thought that I would,
Find myself at the beginning,
But at the end.
Am I wasting time?
Pictures fading while I sing this song a million times,
A million times.

All that I promised to myself,
Another word misplaced tonight.
All that I'm holding in,
Yeah why am I holding in?

Wow so far, but so good,
A picture's worth a thousand words.
Wow so far, but so good,
It's worth a thousand words.

Forever thriving on a feeling no tomorrow,
Without a day of growing older I can defend,
The bridge I burn this time
At constant odds with the hope that keeps me alive,
Keeps me alive.

All that I promised to myself,
Another word misplaced tonight
All that I'm holding in,
Yeah why am I holding in?

Wow so far, but so good,
A picture's worth a thousand words.
Wow so far, but so good,
It's worth a thousand words,
It's worth a thousand words.

Well so far so good
Yeah so far so good
Well so far so good
Yeah yeah
