

West bound ride thru Texas
The sun here really burns
Open up and try and beat the heat
It still don't do much good
Kick back and endure it, a 100 miles ta go Take a break, get some shade, before we start up again

117, 117
117 so I'm told I don't know

Sun's going down here to an orange sky out west
Got an open road, not a car in sight, I'm hammerin
Down the rest

I been thinkin bout the weather, it's been pretty good this trip,
outran a thunderstorm
2 days ago, I did not expect this...
