Bleedin'

Stradlin Izzy

She'd always be out late a drinkin
You'd always let it go down
Now she's gone, why ya bleedin...let it go

Ya gotta know better now you're older
This ain't the end of the world
So get off your ass and get over her
Let it go
Let it go

What ya dyin about, ya gotta let it go, no need ta be crying for her man, come on now
You should know

Now time has passed, you're an old man
Way up there high on the hill
Back on the streets it ain't changed much
Yeah I know
Let it go

What ya dyin about, ya gotta let it go, no need to be cryin for her man, come on now
You should know
