

Never Ending Horror

Straight Line Stitch

Emotions rotting in my mouth
Biting my tongue to keep them from coming out
Spoiling on the inside has made me nauseated
Holding everything inside I thought I ever hated
Why is so much amiss? Why must you inflict this

(pre-chorus)

Why is this horror never-ending?
What did I do? Who am I offending?
You try to break me, you cannot break me (i'm only bending)

(chorus)

I wake up everyday
So many feelings of dismay
The nightmare becomes real
Facing this ordeal
Why should I even look ahead?

I want so bad to feel apart of me thats killed
My flesh collides-dying on the inside
Fading into nothing, yes it is coming
Up and through my insides never to subside

(pre-chorus)

This is where it ends

(chorus)

This is where it ends
