

Heartbreak Zone

Strangeways

There's this place in time where no one likes to be
When the smokescreen clears it's oh so plain to see
But I just can't climb this wall
And it keeps me on the outside

Livin' in the Heartbreak Livin' in the Heartbreak Zone x2

Looking out again with sadness in my eyes
Another broken heart is so hard to disguise
But I just can't climb this wall
And it keeps me on the outside

Livin' in the Heartbreak Livin' in the Heartbreak Zone x4

And I just can't climb this wall
And it keeps me on the outside
