

Norfolk Coast

The Strangers

I was a loser in the loving wars
I took my treasure to the Norfolk Coast
You did it to me
You did it to me
And now you see
What's left of me

I walked alone on the Norfolk Coast
With the screams of the birds they echoed around my mind
With the screams of the birds they echoed around my mind

I was a coward in the loving wars
You were for ever, I was just a pause
You did it to me
You did it to me
And now you see
What's left of me

I walked alone on the Norfolk Coast
With the screams of the birds they echoed around my mind
I walked alone on the N walked alone on the Norfolk Coast
With the screams of the birds they echoed around my mind
With the screams of the birds they echoed around my mind.
