

Norman Normal

The Stranglers

I know a man who only lives by crime
In fact he does it all the time
He has a cat and he has a dog
Two children and a wife

he was read is rights
(Just before he lay) just before he lay
(When the guard) when the guard
(Was already in intensive care) was already in intensive care
(But his so-called friends) but his so-called friends (Were already in Spain) were already in Spain

A sailor who forged for me and you
He dresses up all the time
On a Saturday night, in his fishnet tights He's cute, but way past his prime but then he found out (After all those years) after all those years

(He took his daughter to the station) He took his daughter to the station
(And left his wife in tears) and left his wife in tears
(He realised) he realised (he was a Ginger beer) he was homosexual

Take me much higher than I wanted to see the rain

Norman Normal, he's one hell of a guy
Norman Normal, he's one hell of a guy

I knew a man, a good old holster man
He was always kind to me
His mates were killing indiscriminately
Daily on TV

he went to work
(Just the other day) just the other day
(Turned the key in the car) turned the key in the car
(But got blown away) but got blown away
(Doesn't God work) doesn't God work
(In mysterious ways?) in mysterious ways?

Take me much higher than I wanted to see the rain

Norman Normal, he's one hell of a guy
Norman Normal, he's one hell of a guy

Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)
Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)

Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)

Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)

Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)

Take me (Normal Normal) much higher (he's one hell) than I wanted to see the
rain (of a guy)

(Normal Normal, Normal, Normal, Normal...
Normal Normal, Normal, Normal, Normal...
Norman Normal, he's one hell of a guy
Normal Normal, Normal, Normal, Normal...
Normal Normal, Normal, Normal, Normal...)
