Strata

You crash in and turn me around and i can't push through to the center this place is such a mess and i think I'm lonely again maybe someone can change the way i feel deep blue seclusion, hold me that way again i beat myself to death again tonight you'll be my shelter, my sapphire it gets in my eyes, i still follow it's way too much blood for us to swallow.
i beat myself to death again tonight
this cant change.
