Lying alone in your bed

Images from the past filling your head

You try to run, you try to hide

But there is no escape, your eyes are open wide

Long time ago you felt alive Now only emptiness is blackening your life The time has come to break away Or you go astray

Dreamweaver, there is so much more to see Dreamweaver, there is a deeper way to feel Dreamweaver, misery takes a hold of you Paralyzes your soul

Dreamweaver, find a way to understand
Dreamweaver, you hold your fate in your own hand
Dreamweaver, break your chains and make your move
Or you might just see the dreamweaver's fall

Things that you started are still undone While you are wasting your precious life The sleepless nights won't leave you be You're going astray

Dreamweaver, there is so much more to see Dreamweaver, there is a deeper way to feel Dreamweaver, misery takes a hold of you Paralyzes your soul

Dreamweaver, hold your fate in your own hand
Dreamweaver, break your chains and make your move
Or you might just see the dreamweaver's fall
