

Frozen in Time

Stratovarius

Breathing silently
Holding each other quietly
Their life is a dream, a dream they share
And soon it's falling
Underneath the starlit skies
Getting all lost in lovers eyes
Singing their song, sharing some wine
Their fate is calling

Out there in the dark
Glowing an eerie single spark
Soon a thunderous sound
Is shaking the ground

Frozen in time
They lie
Buried alive they are forevermore
Frozen in time
They died
Lying side by side forevermore
Frozen in time

Fate can be unjust
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
This is the end of their tale
Now heaven's fading
Lying together, heart to heart
Not even death tore them apart
Forever gone, forever one
Forever waiting

Out there in the dark
Glowing an eerie single spark
Soon a thunderous sound
Is shaking the ground

Frozen in time
They lie
Buried alive they are forevermore
Frozen in time
They died
Lying side by side forevermore
Frozen in time

Frozen in time
Forever one
Buried alive the way they died
Frozen in time

Frozen in time
They lie
Buried alive they are forevermore
Frozen in time
They died
Frozen in time

They lie
Frozen in time forevermore
Buried alive the way they died

Frozen in time
