

Glory Days

Stratovarius

We are the war
We are the storm
A lightning that lights up the sky
We are the wind
We are the rain
We are the howl in the night

We're the rage of the sea
Unchained and free
Saviour of blessed and the cursed
Descendant of kings
A fate on dark wings
Out of the shadows we rise

We fight for all
Fight for the glory days
We will fight for one
Until the rising sun
And we will prevail

We fought to see these glory days
Shed our blood and wept our tears to see victory
We fought to see these glory days
Burning brighter than the sun
One for all and all for one
Hear our voice and heed our call
We fight for all
We fight for glory days

We are the fire
We are the force
We are the loud battle cry
We are the shield
We are the sword
We are the bringer of light

We're the legion of dawn
A legend reborn
Nation of justice and faith
Edge of the blade
A promise once made
Out of the shadows we rise

We fight for all
Fight for the glory days
We will fight for one
Until the rising sun
And we will prevail

We fought to see these glory days
Shed our blood and wept our tears to see victory
We fought to see these glory days
One for all and all for one
Hear our voice and heed our call
We fight for all

We fought to see these glory days
Shed our blood and wept our tears to see victory
One for all and all for one
Hear our voice and heed our call
We fight for all
