

Uncertainty

Stratovarius

Learning by trying it's hard to deny it while paying for what I used to know Dreams are deceiving untill I'm achieving the goals I haven't set too low

Waiting for a new day
to wipe away
the Uncertainty that flows around me
once again to stay

So many choices but so few answers my time slips away while thinking too much Whom to believe in they're all just repeating the same old lies so nice to clutch

Waiting for a new day
to wipe away the Uncertainty that flows around me
once again to stay
