

Changes

Strawberry Alarm Clock

Yeah, yeah

Changes you asked for
Changes you'll get
And while you're askin'
At least try not to forget

The moments we longed for Weren't ours to love for
In the middle of the heat time
You've come for the last time
With me, yeah
Whoa

Changes are comin' and
I look for some and
I get what I want and
Mmm, but not from you

I'll find some deservin'
Oh, beautiful servant
To love and to live with
To share and to give with
To me, oh

Changes you asked for
Strange that you should beg for
Time with me, girl, is runnin' out on you
And it's happening mighty fast

If I had known you
I would have grown to love you
In the center of a hot time
Your love's workin' out in a bad time
For me
Oh whoa whoa whoa
Yeah

Someday you'll find a teacher
Who will take you and preach you love

Ha, get on there
Oh, wow, yeah, whoa
Yeah, yeah

Soon you'll find a teacher
Who'll sit right down and teach you
He'll teach you some good things, baby
Then you can come back to me

And I'll be here, baby
Just come on back and you'll see
You know that I got
That I got a pain in my heart for you
But what?
