

A White Lie

Strawberry Guy

Even though I'm on my own, I feel fine
Even though I'm all alone, I feel fine
I don't need anyone

Well sometimes I lie, and they're not all white
Sometimes you lie yourself through life

Even though I'm on my own, I feel fine
Even though I'm all alone, I feel fine
I don't need anyone

Well sometimes I lie, and they're not all white

But I feel fine, but I feel fine
