

Fortune Teller

Stray from the Path

Firewalk with me

I see my father's shadow, my soul is critical
My gut, my gravestone, firewalk with me
I've talked with ghosts of old, the end to my end is my control
The future's in my bones, firewalk with me

My hero is my victim, my angle in the system
Messiahs, slave drivers, pensions, prisons, come on, firewalk with me
Run up, my hand is steady, come test me from the ground up
Build a bridge, we'll burn it up, firewalk with me

Firewalk with me

The end to my end is my control, the future's in my bones
Build a bridge, we'll burn it up, come on, yeah, firewalk with me

Firewalk with me

The end to my end is my control, the future's in my bones

Build a bridge, we'll burn it up, firewalk with me

My fingers feel the fractures, my prophecy, my rapture
The knife that cuts the cancer, firewalk with me
My fear is not my master, my darkness is my lantern
The question is the answer, can you firewalk with me?

They can't catch us if we run
They can't catch us if we run
They can't catch us if we run

We don't answer to anyone
We don't answer to anyone
We don't answer to anyone

The end to my end is my control, the future's in my bones
The end to my end is my control, the future's in my bones
Firewalk with me
