

Kubrick Stare

Stray from the Path

Stray

Yo, where we at?
Same shit, different day
Open your eyes
Your eyes got clockwork

Oh, we're back in the building, going down in flames
Tried to turn a new leaf but it's soaked with gasoline
Sinking feeling, inching toward the end of days
How do you sleep amongst these demons?
Don't you feel ashamed?
Violence and vices, gotta numb the pain
Keep your composure, are we fucking insane?
Ghosts of a culture, we all got that Kubrick stare
I'm eye to eye with ya
How much can we fucking bear?
How much can we fucking bear?

Oh, you traumatized? Just walk it off
You dead inside? Man, just walk it off
This can't be right (Nah, nah, nah) – just walk it off?
If heaven exists, then what the fuck is this?
Woah, they shot a guy? Yeah, just walk it off
Another genocide? Man, just walk it off
No, this can't be right (Nah, nah, nah) – just walk it off?
If heaven exists, then what the fuck is this?

Hell-oh
You let the devil in
A savage off the leash
Faith's just a parting gift
Discarded on the street
Overrun, over the hill, over-filthed, over-policed
Work till the skin comes off
The masters crave the meat
They want a bite of ya
Yeah, we all got that Kubrick stare
I'm eye to eye with ya (I'm eye to eye with ya)
How much can we fucking bear?
How much can we fucking bear?

If heaven exists, then what the fuck is this?
I don't look away
Faces of death, I face 'em every day
Reality fucks you up but there's no other way through
But through, but through
Stare it in the eyes and scream "Fuck you"
Stare it in the eyes and scream "Fuck you"

(Wait)

Oh, you traumatized? Just walk it off
You dead inside? Man, just walk it off
This can't be right (Nah, nah, nah) – just walk it off?
If heaven exists, then what the fuck is this?
(Man)
Just walk it off?
Man, just walk it off

(Nah, nah, nah) Just walk it off?
Just walk it off
If heaven exists, then what the fuck is this?
