

Law Abiding Citizen

Stray from the Path

Bernie Madoff, stock trade, sex scandals
MySpace, countrywide killing time
Jk Rowling, schilling time, violate
Civil rights, Westboro, Paula White
Guilani, and as always fuck the alt right
Fucka Zuckerberg Jesus Christ, flat earthers, Pedophiles
Gerrymanders, suicide
Cali's burning wildfires
Climate change deniers
Child labor, hate thy neighbor
Yes I do

Hate you too
Kardashian Queens
Olsteen Gods
Qanons, trust fund frauds
Ted cruisin' through tax havens
Alex jonesing Insider trading
Insurrections
Count your blessings
All that's left is blood and vengeance
Shooting sprees to ease the tension my confession
I feel no remorse in letting violence run its course but...

Listen
I'm just a law abiding citizen
And if I'm not being detained
Let me go about my business
Listen
I'm just a law abiding citizen
And I don't want no trouble
Unless trouble's given

Gaza Strip stripped by Zionists
Tucker tales, cut the counterfeit
Pharma kings, oxy kids
Blood Diamond mines, make the microchips
Bojo beat
Scomo tactics
Twitter beef
Russians hacked it
Refugees
Boats to Damascus
Deal disease
In a political package

Private skies
G5s to the G7 Summit
Privatized incarceration
Pro-life miseducation
Bloodlining
Wine cellars stuffed with the finest
A queen with a scheme to only promote whiteness
Boots licked clean by the elders
Ice cap melters smoke screens Bezos
Weinsteins all got a pass
Until they all got the wrath

Read about me in the papers I still had the last laugh but...

Listen

I'm just a law abiding citizen

And if I'm not being detained

Let me go about my business

Listen

I'm just a law abiding citizen

And I don't want no trouble

Unless trouble's given

Know that I tried to see the bright side

Now I don't mind

Making the headlines

Tell my mother that I love her and I found peace

Removing the life, the life of the leech

Fuck em, they deserve to die

I was a law abiding citizen

I was a law abiding citizen

(Know that I tried to see the bright side)

I was a law abiding citizen

I was a law abiding citizen

(Now I don't mind making the headlines)

Tell my mother that I love her and I found peace

Tell my mother that I love her and I found peace
