Stray from the Path

broadcasted from a room that's full of it pushing weight, white coats are selling shit you get lost in it, you fall victim to the cause of it you're the reason they make money from it campaign of fear from year to year but i don't think we're seeing crystal clear filled with doubt as you cover your mouth. stay inside, don't go out pandemonium, a modern dose of phobia, up in a house medications got a hold of ya.

face your fate, section 8 the elite got you hooked in a chemical state cancer causing capital the people turned to animals
