Ring Leader

Stray from the Path

Thinking like everyone else, is not really thinking

Fall in line
You obey
What they say they say

Out of Time
You can't see the signs
When the blind lead the blind

Smoke out the hives
Let em burn, let em burn
You walk the line
Mimic every word and every turn
Just an echo
You should let go
Imitation is flattery
But this is a tragedy

Have you lost your god damn mind?
Straight jacket, hypnotized

Latching on like a leech
But you don't practice what you preach
Desperate disciples riding the coat tail
Dragged through the dirt trail
Dead in the water, lambs to the slaughter
Follow the pack, handed the future from the palm reader
Lost in the swarm drinking Kool Aid from the cult leader
Thinking like everyone else is not really thinking, this ship i s sinking

Have you lost your god damn mind?
Straight jacket, hypnotized

The circus is nothing without the clown
We gave them a stage but we can tear it down

Thinking like everyone else, is not really thinking

Have you lost your god damn mind?
Straight jacket, hypnotized
