

Shot Caller

Stray from the Path

Face the fucking wall

May god have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
I won't, I won't
May god have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
I won't, I won't
Hesitate to burn a hole through your fucking brain
So may God (God) have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
'Cause I won't, I won't

Slick convicts
Dismissed
Something doesn't click
Let me take a shot at 'em, I won't miss
Threading life through a loophole
Your lie was a useful form of violence
I see the truth
Through transparent masks
You act like untouchables
You'll never ever get a pass
In a hero out a coward it goes (It goes)
Father forgive 'em
I don't, I don't

May god have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
I won't, I won't
May god have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
I won't, I won't
Hesitate to burn a hole through your fucking brain
So may God (God) have mercy on ya
May god have mercy on ya
'Cause I won't, I won't

I'm seein' shadows come to life
They're pocket picketing, rubbing shoulders with the CEOs
Oh no
Another wolf in disguise

You need a fix of their supply
They got the action
Side stepping justice motherfuckas
They're outta alibis
Face the fucking wall
Now I'm the shotcaller
I wanna watch you die

Shot caller
Send another body below
Shot caller
Count your blessings, it's gonna be biblical
Shot caller
Ice in my veins, vendetta in my bones

Shot caller

Side stepping justice motherfuckers
Line 'em up, line 'em up last call

I want
I wanna watch you die
