

Strange Fiction

Stray from the Path

Strange fiction
My life's a plot, so twist with me
Strange fiction
This is nothing more than a tragedy
Strange fiction
I just exist in a memory
Strange fiction
My life's a plot, so come twist with me

One step forward, ten steps back
The first in line on the wrong train track
Life's a sad story I'll never learn
Turn the page?
I'd rather watch it burn

Another dead end, always in trouble
It's like I got the wrong pieces to this fucking puzzle
Dead to the world
Go get the shovel
It's like I got the wrong pieces to this fucking puzzle

Strange fiction
My life's a plot, so twist with me
Strange fiction
This is nothing more than a tragedy
Strange fiction
I just exist in a memory
Strange fiction
My life's a plot, so come twist with me

Another lapse in judgment
A lapse in time
Have I become a myth in your mind?
Stuck on hold, nobody calls
Was it fucking worth it after all?

Another dead end, always in trouble
It's like I got the wrong pieces to this fucking puzzle
Dead to the world
Go get the shovel
It's like I got the wrong pieces to this fucking puzzle

You know my name, but not my story
You've heard what I've done in all of its glory
So dance with me for a day and you'll finally see
All that I know is fucking misery

You wanna live with the wolves?
You better learn how to track that blood, boy
I see you clutching your pearls
Go back inside, this is not your hunt
You wanna live with the wolves?
You better learn how to train them by hand
I see you clutching your pearls
Go back inside, this is not your hunt
Go on, pray for yourself
Go on, pray for our sins

Go on, pray for the world

Go on, tell your God—your father—I'm a nothing
