

The House Always Wins

Stray from the Path

Break, mother fucker
Yo they're making you an offer that you can't refuse
Break, mother fucker
Yeah you bet against the house and you're gonna lose
Break, mother fucker
We're all fucked no matter who we choose
Yeah Break, mother fucker
Yeah you bet against the house and you're gonna lose

Bare witness yo business is business
A two faced coin either side there's no difference,
Who can you buy to tell a lie? this shit is viscous
The deck is rigged don't call em out they keep a hit list.
Two sides polarized, social suicide
Homegrown invasion to enslave the nation,
But you decide,
Burn the ballots sweep em under the rug,
Who's your leader? Trick question,
none of the above.

Break, mother fucker
Yo they're making you an offer that you can't refuse
Break, mother fucker
Yeah you bet against the house and you're gonna lose
Break, mother fucker
We're all fucked no matter who we choose
Yeah Break, mother fucker
Yeah you bet against the house and you're gonna lose

Here we go again.
The cycle repeats, four years of defeat wrong way down a one way street
The fix is in, the price will make your head spin They're calling the shots, and you're not politicians hitting the jack pot
The debates begun
Gays, gods and guns everyone hates everyone.

Who's your leader? Trick question.
None of the above

You wanna keep em' silent but the people wanna riot you try to keep em' silent but we wanna fucking riot
Break, mother fucker
Yo they're making you an offer that you can't refuse
Break, mother fucker
Yeah you bet against the house and you're gonna lose
Break, mother fucker
We're all fucked no matter who we choose
