I just really love you (Really love you)
You're the only reason why I really love you (Really love you)
When I see you smile, I just can't get enough
And I can't live without you
Baby, I just really love you (Really love you)

I just really love you (Really love you)
 You're the only reason why I really love you (Really love you)
 When I see you smile, I just can't get enough
 And I can't live without you
 Baby, I just really love you (Really love you)

'Cause I like you
 There's no other reason, I like you
 When I watch you smile, there's nothing more I could ask for
 'Cause I just like you

I just wanna ask you about your day
Listening to your stories has become my hobby
It feels like the shortest time of the day
I wanna listen to all your worries
Let me share your load
So you can break free from the heavy burden
You've been carrying

You can lean on me
Until your cloud of worries disappear from your clear eyes
What's giving you such a hard time?
I'm serious, I'd rather hurt instead of you
Seeing you smile makes me happy
Even though you look the prettiest when you smile
When you just wanna cry, don't fake a smile

Your eyes filled with happiness, yeah
Are water that will spill even with the slightest jolt
That's why I'm more cautious, no
I'm worried for you 'cause I like you (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

'Cause I just like you
For no other reason, I like you
When I look at you smile there's nothing more I could ask for
'Cause I just like you

I wanna be with you all day
Without mood swings, full of laughter
You cried yesterday but I'm glad you feel better
The sparkling tears in your dewy eyes are diamonds
I like your honest expression
I like that you're not good at hiding your facial expressions
So don't conceal it
You know better how much harder it is

Your eyes filled with happiness, yeah
Are water that will spill even with the slightest jolt
That's why I'm more cautious, no
I'm worried for you 'cause I like you (Yeah, yeah, yeah)

'Cause I just like you
For no other reason, I like you
When I look at you smile there's nothing more I could ask for
'Cause I just like you

I just really love you
You're the only reason why I really love you
When I see you smile I just can't get enough
And I can't live without you
Baby I just really love you
