(Hoo)
Yeah, yeah, let's go
Come and say it in front of me
I don't give a shoosh, move if you wanna live
I don't wanna make trouble, gotta go, get out of the way

Go ahead and go all black
In the calm river, get out of the way, pyramids, uh
Stop yapping and spit some
It's disgusting to see all that bluff, wackers, uh, uh, uh
Here, nine out of ten are just dreamers
Always dreaming but never moving, just useless idlers
Oh, please stop talking nonsense and clean up
I don't give a thing about your opinion, stop barking

We fill our hungry bellies with the mic, this is a game
Jumping rope on the world map, just playing around
Hall, arena, dome and stadium
Who would have expected it? Quickly back, back off
Hello again, let us introduce ourselves
Stray Kids rock the world, bow your heads
This is barely chapter two of our play
Everyone, get out of the way, get out of the way

Why are you barking all day?
Step aside, clear the way, we're back stronger, bounce back
That gang of cowards all sticking together
Face me right here, I'm standing before you, bounce back
I like this, we stick together, we're all messed up
Unlike your group, we're immortal
Even if I die, I'll live and keep bounce back
Even if I die, I'll live and keep bounce back

Say it a hundred times and always act
Right after reaching the goal, we meet
Similar reaction to the end of the stage
Right after the album came out, the next comeback, encore
I'm so geeky and sick, riding the beat, keeping it peaceful
My color shines on stage
The compliments never dry up, because of the love calls from various places, zoom
Flying planes, spreading the groove far and wide

Oh, you'll never never know how we flow
We just do it, nothing matters, we just go
Oh, you better better know how we do it
'Cause we're killing every stage with our songs
We're confident in our skills, pain doesn't wear us out
New things fill up, I know we'll never give up
Our life itself is a miracle, negativity, step aside
Those anxious memories are now a build-up for today
We did it, hoo (Bring it back, come on)

Why are you barking all day?
Step aside, clear the way, we're back stronger, bounce back
That gang of cowards all sticking together
Face me right here, I'm standing before you, bounce back
I like this, we stick together, we're all messed up
Unlike your group, we're immortal
Even if we die, we'll survive, keep bounce back
Even if we die, we'll survive, keep bounce back

Bounce back forever
Bounce back forever
Ping-pong, we're bouncing back
We just keep coming back
Ping-pong, we're bouncing back
