The place we run to for each other
Yes, we were always in the same place
Together, I feel time has flid so fast
In my time, memories are crowded
I didn't know the sky is so clear like this until I met you
I thought the sun is only scorching
Thank you for coming to me
And becoming the same shadow with mine before the approaching light

You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
Instead of the chilly wind, the sound of the wind patting us

We can hear it anywhere
Anywhere everywhere yeah
We hear it anywhere
Yeah yeah yeah
You can rest here You can rest here (Hey)
You can rest here You can rest here (Hey)
You can stay here You can stay here (Yeah yeah)
Instead of the chilly wind, the sound of the wind patting us

You can rest here You can rest here

I was running hastily
You ran in step with me
And embraced me saying okay
You let me lean on your shoulder
The cold shower didn't stop
The rainwater came up to my chin
Thank you for holding my hands

As I look back on the path I've come
I can always picture the images of you and me together

You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
You can STAY yeah
Instead of the chilly wind, the sound of the wind patting us

We can hear it anywhere
Anywhere everywhere yeah
We hear it anywhere
Yeah yeah yeah
You can rest here You can rest here (Hey)
You can rest here You can rest here (Hey)
You can stay here You can stay here (Yeah yeah)
Instead of the chilly wind, the sound of the wind patting us

You can rest here You can rest here

You can stay here You can stay here

Close your eyes, hold my hands onto the clouds Ride
We can go anywhere
Silently I hear your voice for a while Ey
Holding your hands tightly, in your heart Stay
I don't care about anybody, you and I alone

You can rest here You can rest here

You can stay here You can stay here

Thank you for bringing me
You brought me here
Thank you for bringing me
You brought me here
