

We'll Never Leave Again

Straylight Run

And i've got you on my mind
Seems i almost always all the time
And its soft secure and fun
In the fading summer sunlight
And your hands on the wall
...?...
All that needed to be said
Your body beneath me rising and sinking
We'll never leave again
We'll never leave again
This is all we are
And it's all we'll ever
We'll never leave again
We'll never leave again
This is all we are
And it's all we'll ever need
In love and death
We speak for weeks
So good its almost just too much
To believe
Its your sweet slow smile
Tells me
You always know exactly what it is i need
We'll be safe in our home
Hidden in here alone
And the photos will show
These moments were golden
We'll never leave again
We'll never leave again
This is all we are
And it's all we'll ever
We'll never leave again
We'll never leave again
This is all we are
And its all we'll ever need
