

Broke Down Inside

Street Dogs

I remember, I remember

Fought the opposition, took my time to take my position
I've been a gimp horse with a mouth that's been kicked
A trial and error of friendships to boot
But you're not gonna throw me down
'Cos my family's all here in this dirty old town
A smile as my world turns upside down
But your ignorant bliss won't keep me down

I'm not into surrender, or losing sight of moral standards
Take it all in stride I leave it all behind for moral law(?)

And I don't think you'll ever stop believing
You're not deceiving
You're broke down inside

Fool me twice, so shame on me
I must apologize for my sensitivity
I never liked you anyway
And I see through the darkness for a clearer perspective today
And you are a liar, a thief
A stink, and a cheat
Justice is so hard to come by
So, so, so I'm kissing your discreet schemes goodbye

I'm not into surrender, or losing sight of moral standards
Take it all in stride I leave it all behind for moral law(?)

And I don't think you'll ever stop believing
You're not deceiving
You're broke down inside
And I'm not sure how you can look in the mirror
You're not fooling anyone at all
You're broke down inside

And there was a day in recent memory
In a part of the world, from your evil cause(?)
Now I can say that I'm moving on
'Cause I'm gone

And I don't think you'll ever stop believing
You're not deceiving
You're broke down inside
And I'm not sure how you can look in the mirror
You're not fooling anyone at all
You're broke down inside
You're broke down inside
You're broke down inside
