

Too Much Information

Street Dogs

I'm Losing my Fucking Mind

On the TV, on the PC, too many things come flashing at me, go buy lie live or die will it ever stop I wonder why will the great fall, the weight of it all we kill countries, we stand too tall, too much debt beyond the break, how much more can we take

I feel like I'm losing my mind, this is too much information, I cannot retain just makes me insane, this is too much information

Flight, fight, day or night, do you vote left or do you vote right, new health care, dirty bomb scare, two old wars, do you care, tiger woods, christmas goods, smartphone war, bad or good, are we too smug, self righteous, beyond the break, real or fake

I feel like I'm losing my mind, this is too much information, I cannot retain just
makes me insane, this is too much information

Are you over informed with all this info or is your ignorance, truly bliss?
(straight jacket, straight jacket) I need a shelter from this storm of shit but there is no off switch i can hit maybe a new drug i can take from this bad news all I need is a break

I can't retain I'm going insane
This is too much information
