

Love Will Survive

Barbra Streisand

Until I find you
And walk beside you
Until we face every heartache together
I'll keep believing, feel you breathing, hear your cries
With every season of sorrow
Somehow our love survives

As nights grew longer
Our prayers grew stronger
And in the darkness, we kept hope alive
We made a promise that love will survive

And in our dreams, we are running from shadows
Leaving behind the tears and the ghosts

Until I'm near you
Somehow I'll hear you
Your voice will echo inside me forever

And when I find you
I'll walk beside you

Oh, and in our dreams, we are running from shadows
Leaving behind the tears and the ghosts (The tears and the ghosts)

Our years were taken
Our spirits shaken
But in the darkness, we kept hope alive
We made a promise that love will survive

Love will survive
