

What Kind Of Fool

Barbra Streisand

Both

There was a time when we were down and out
There was a place when we were starting over
We let the bough break
We let the heartache in
Who's sorry now
Who's sorry now

Barbra

There was a world when we were standing still
And for a moment we were separated
And then you found her
You let the stranger in
Together
Who's sorry now

Barbra

Who's sorry now
What , what kind of fool
Tears it apart
Leaving me pain and sorrow

Barry

Losing you now
Wonderin' why
Where will I be tomorrow

Chorus

Forever more that's what we are to be Without each other
We'll be remembering when...

Both

There was a time when we were down and out
(We cried)
There was a place when we were starting over
(We lied)
We let the bough break
We let the heartache in
Who's sorry now
Who's sorry now

Barbra

What , what kind of fool

Barry

What , what kind of fool

Barbra

Tears it apart

Barry

Tears it apart

Barbra

Leaving me pain and sorrow

Barry
Oh! Losing you now
How can I win
Where will I be tomorrow

Barbra
Was there a moment when I cut you down
Played around
What have I done
I only apologize
For being as they say, the last to know
It has to show
When someone is in your eyes

Both
What, what kind of fool
Tears it apart
Leaving me pain and sorrow
Losing you now
Wondering why
Where will I be tomorrow
What, what kind of fool
Tears it apart
Leaving me pain and sorrow
Losing you now
How can I win
Where will I be tomorrow
