The Calling

Stretch Arm Strong

This thing of ours it's gone world wide.
The kids are here they're by our side.
So light the torch we're on the way.
All together, let me hear you say.
Everywhere around the world, every boy and every girl.
It's in our blood, it's in our soul.
No matter your age.
Many wonder why.
Few will ever understand.
This is what I love and this is who I am.
We'll make this life with all our strength.
Come fight with us and go the length.
We'll carry out this destiny.
We'll scream and shout, we'll make them see.
