STRFKR

Don't wanna fake it
Couldn't remember your name
Losing our minds together
We are
I wanna know what's inside us
Even if it's only silence
Stealing a moment's all that we have

Oh
Can you read between the lines
See with your own eyes
Leave it alone where you are
Oh
Can you read between the lines
Keep it in your mind
No one remembers at all

Don't wanna make it up
Don't wanna know where you are
Wasting our lives together
We are
Now that you know
Now that you know
Safe and warm
Stealing a moment's all that we have

Oh
Can you read between the lines
See with your own eyes
Leave it alone where you are
Oh
Can you read between the lines
Keep it in your mind
No one remembers at all

Oh
Can you read between the lines
See with your own eyes
Leave it alone where you are
Oh
Can you read between the lines
Keep it in your mind
No one remembers at all
