

In The End

STRFKR

Strange light
On the Highway
Golden
Hours
Hover and Retreat

She said I'd love something I can grow into
And I have good intentions
She kept me up for her secrets and waning moon
And now I can't remember

She's so
Bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions

In the end
You traded your heart
For another

In the end
It was there all along
Under cover

Strange light
On the Highway
Golden
Hours
Hover and Retreat

She said I want someone I can grow into
And I have good intentions
She kept me up for hours of darkened mood
And now I can't remember

She's so
Bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions
She's bad
With good intentions

In the end
You traded your heart
For another

In the end
It was there all along
Under cover

In the end [x7]
For another
