Don't follow and burn the future believing teachings which defend a past conveived to deceive us, to elevate a ruling class

we dream with all the love that you threw away we dream truthseeking in the movement we stay we dream in love with this resistance we play we dream when we go and we dream when we say...

so far carry it on (on) so far carry it over we dream now listen to the voice of the land we dream defying all the killing comands we give our restlessness to fight for the truth we give healing from the fount of youth

our own truth
our own truth
our own truth!
