Two Thousand Voices

Strike Anywhere

Where did it go?
The One!
one big dream we don't give up steel-eyed through the pressure drop thirst and hunger
workday rhymes
in disastrous times

build up
this family
we draw so close
outside of the lines
we're still screaming
for the music
the meaning

meaning what is right
two thousand
other souls burn bright

all in
this entertainment
break out
or be contained in it
reaction
reaction
are we all forgetting?

this entertainment
break out
or be contained in it
reaction
are we all forgetting why?

All forgetting why
the clothes of the
rebel sound
don't fit
lost in an instant

we all fall down to

Build up
this family
we draw so close
outside of the lines
the music
the meaning

Screaming for our rights
two thousand
tonight

All in
this entertainment
break out
reaction

I won't
take it or leave it
the question's asked:
do you still believe it?
reaction
are we all forgetting why?

Where is your courage?
Wasted!

Where is the courage that has brought you to this place
sold into the fashions
of the false heroes' fight
souls burn bright
