

Hands of Time

Striker

I wanted so bad to be there today
But these late nights are long and there
Was just no way
I know I said it wouldn't happen again
But I've got too many problems and too many bad friends
There really isn't too much to say
You can sleep when you're dead
And man we party that way
You say my life won't take me anywhere
But that's just your opinion
And I just don't care

I feel alright
With the mistakes that I've made and the price
That I pay
I feel alright
There's no tears in my eyes
I've got no reason to lie

If there's a way I'll find it
I'll walk it to the end
You can't stop the hands of time

Go ahead and say it's my last chance
I'll be ok on my own and I don't need the romance
I'm just being honest in the things that I say
And I know deep down you feel the same way

I feel alright
With the mistakes that I've made and the price
That I pay
I feel alright
There's no tears in my eyes
I've got no reason to lie

If there's a way I'll find it
I'll walk it to the end
You can't stop the hands of time
