

Run For Your Life

Striker

There is a man
With a look in his eyes
I'm all alone and I think I could die
Gotta keep moving on to see the light

As I walk the night
I get the feeling it's not just me anymore
Out there in the night, it's coming for me

Run for your life
When evil comes for you
Run from the knife
Because it's coming for you

Out on the water
I saw something appear
My friends told me not to worry about it
But that was all before my friends
Started to disappear

As I walk the night
I get the feeling it's not just me anymore
Out there in the night, it's coming for me

Run for your life
When evil comes for you
Run from the knife
Because it's coming for you

Yea it's coming after you
There's nothing you can do
