

9 AM

Stroke 9

Your fears, your scars
I like you the way that you are
All your dark places and multiple faces
I like you the way that you are

So never go
I like all the things that you know
So many traces, and beautiful places
You're often just too scared to show

Let's go, let's go

9 AM, born again
Wide awake, sleeping in
We watch the sun setting in
I gravitate to your light again
2 AM, settled in
We've fallen into something, so
Let's try another day of it
And I'm gonna lay everything on the line

Your downs and outs

I love when you scream and you shout
All your emotions are drops in the oceans
I like everything you're about
So never change
Don't clean up and don't rearrange
Nothing is perfect and that's how we work it
No matter how often it rains

Let's go, let's go

9 AM, born again
Wide awake, sleeping in
We watch the sun setting in
I gravitate to your light again
2 AM, settled in
We've fallen into something, so
Let's try another day of it
And I'm gonna lay everything on the line
I'm gonna lay everything on the line
