Big Fan

Stroke 9

And it was out of my hands
You were totally way out of your head
But I felt I knew, I knew what to do
I didn't have a choice, it was out of the blue, and

You'd never fallen down like that before
You'd never spun around, I can't ignore
Anymore, these things, it's just my heart
And it says, it says, it says, la-la-la

And I'm a big fan of everything that you do
I wanna make sure you're making it through
Come on now and think about possibilities
That we have ahead and we're holding the keys, 'cause

You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
You're there until the end but you still gotta know
It's time to go home but you won't go alone
You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
Come on

Uh-huh, outta your head
Come on

This time everything's right in line
I tied it all together and I saw every sign, yeah
Didn't think you'd bounce back quite that fast
Didn't think I'd forget about the past

Never lasts, never dies, it's just my head
And it cries, it cries, it cries, oh-oh-oh
*
And I'm a big fan of everything that you do
I wanna make sure you're making it through
Come on now and think about possibilities
That we have ahead and we're holding the keys, 'cause

You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
You're there until the end but you still gotta know
It's time to go home but you won't go alone
You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
Come on

I really only remember one occasion when
I made a comment about your reputation, yeah
I never thought it'd affect our relationship
Now, look now, look now, now, now, 'cause

You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
You're there until the end but you still gotta know
It's time to go home but you won't go alone
You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
You say it's rock 'n' roll and you're outta control
