She thinks McLane is cute, pours us a free round of shots and it's on It's on, it's totally on
It's on, it's fuckin on

And the beers are flowing
And the babes are mind blowin
And there's no way of knowin exactly where we're goin
Everyone under the sun is a part of what we've become
But our work here's not done
So take it and run
