

Today

Stroke 9

There's a place where I've been
It's a place I want to go to once in a while
It takes me back to a day
And lets me feel just like a child

I'm not talking 'bout tomorrow
And I'm not talking 'bout yesterday
I'm not talking about sorrow
I'm just talking 'bout today

There are things that I like
There are things that I love to hate
But as more days grow to nights
Some things just cannot wait

I'm not talking 'bout tomorrow
And I'm not talking 'bout yesterday
I'm not talking about sorrow
I'm just talking 'bout today
Today, talking 'bout today
Today

Can innocence return to stay
In a sense I want to be that way
I'm not talking 'bout tomorrow
And I'm not talking 'bout yesterday
I'm not talking about sorrow
I'm just talking 'bout today
Today, talking 'bout today
Today
