

Yer Voice

Stroke 9

I wanna hear yer voice
Laughing, screaming you're not there
Word is I had no choice in the matter at all
I wanna hear yer voice

And the way you grab my hand
And say it's just too much
And the way you kiss and turn away
Well I say that's not enough
I wanna hear yer voice

And now it's so cold
In my house where you were
All the things I should have told you
The way I feel and how
I wanna hear yer voice now
Oh yeah, Oh yeah

And the way you grab my hand
And say it's just too much
And the way you kiss and turn away
I wanna hear yer voice
