

Cry For Help

Struggle Jennings

Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help
Save me
I can't save myself
Save me (Yea)
This is my cry for help
(I hear you loud and clear)

I'm a patriot and I'm a patriarch
But I'm a father first and Imma play that part
Gonna stand for mine and never bow or buckle
There for anybody that ever get in trouble
Yeah a storm is brewing I can see them clouds
Hear the children crying baby clear and loud
Shine a light on shadows Imma clear them out
Don't wanna hear the truth you better hear them now
Before it hits home and it's too close
To deny the facts that you been running from
I made it through hell just to show and tell
All the lost ones where I've been coming from
My number one is my household
And my family always been my saving grace
There's a war right now and it's taking place
And you bite your tongue so you're saving face
Imma yell it loud it's my battle cry
On this battlefield I'll take my consequence
Yea it's common sense when it's good and evil
You can't ride a fence that's some coward shit
I'll take them hits I'll throw them blows
I'll lose it all to save their innocence
I'll deliver this with some diligence
'Cause your ignorance makes us different

Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help
Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help
(I hear you loud and clear)

Took the blindfold off of these blurry eyes
Gonna be a horror story where the scary dies
Angels fly with their guns out
Causing hell a fire when Mother Mary cries
I heard the lies but I've seen the truth
They're gonna silence you if you bring the proof
They gon call you crazy when you call em out
They try to box us in but we can box them out
Don't dare ask me what I'm talking 'bout
If you ain't listened yet then you'll never hear it
We pray to God and we stand up
Got an army here I know the devil fear it

Yeah the future's clearer when you know the past
And the train is coming and it's rolling fast
Gotta fix the path it's on a broken track
There's no time for us to be holding back
Now we need some leaders to wake up the sleepers
Make believers outta non-believers
Let freedom of speech ring through the speakers
Take the filthy rich to the cleaners
Shine our light baby high beamers
Don't let sex crimes be a misdemeanor
Protect these babies from these sickening creatures
I refuse to sit and watch from the bleachers

Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help
Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help

Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help
Save me
I can't save myself
Save me
This is my cry for help

Save me
