

Stand In Flame

Struggle Jennings

I swear to god I can't forget
The first night that we rocked
Who'd have thought my life would change
Right there on Fremont
Gave you a hug, felt butterflies
In that second I fantasized
Of you and I building empires together
Went through the fire together
Kept believing in me
Let's just be honest, I gave you a million reasons to leave
And you've been the epitome of someone keeping it G
And if you wasn't in my life I don't know where I would be You're the reason I'm okay
While my world rotates
You're my girl, my best friend
My twin flame, my soul mate
Every second, every day
You make me fall in love
A thousand roses and a million thank you's wouldn't be enough
For real

If the world were to caught on fire
I hope you know I would stand in flames
Lost my soul for the money and power
In the end what did I gain
Bullets flying, my people dying
Gotta lose a life just to feel my pain
If the world were to catch on fire
I hope you know I would walk through flames

Life with you's been so cool, we made it off of those hot coals
I'm down for you like 4 flats on a Nashville road in those pot holes
Hit the button, let the top fold, the wind'll kiss that pretty face
Been rollin' since the box Chevy on Apollo drive and off of Hardin place
Wrote me back when I caught a case, never wrote me off for all my mistakes
We endured hell just to get to Heaven, now we live our best tell Heaven than ks
If it all falls and it's gone tomorrow, there's no sorrow, I got you
These other girls just can't compare, I fucked them all and they not you
Stick and move but I stuck to you, I seen it clear like hot glue
I was trapping, I caught you, so I shot my shot and it shot through
See it thru til my eyes closed, down whatever road we may go down
I'm a king when I'm by your side, I don't need the world to give me no crown
My queen

If the world were to caught on fire
I hope you know I would stand in flames
Lost my soul for the money and power
In the end what did I gain
Bullets flying, my people dying
Gotta lose a life just to feel my pain
If the world were to catch on fire
I hope you know I would walk through flames
