

Cages

Strung Out

So, what good now are these cages we live in
Blinded by a suicide
Cuz no one's listening
Generation digitize your World War III
Chemicals they serenade, the cult of your history

In secrecy, you all bleed like me
Nobody here's got to go it alone
Riot the ravens
Come as you are
We lock ourselves in cages from within
You are not your
You are not your
Fucking cage

Dead eyes reflect the glowing of the screen
It'll take you where you wanna go to the end of our history
Degeneration of everything we knew
The system here is killing us, and all I want to do is get through to you

In secrecy, you all bleed like me
Nobody here's gotta go it alone
Brothers and sisters
Come, as you are
Unlock yourselves from these cages
That you're in

I hear your cries
Do you feel my rage
Are tired of living
In this fucking cage

I hear your cries
Do you feel my rage
Are tired of living
In this fucking cage

Cage
Cage
Fuck this cage

In secrecy, you all bleed like me
Brothers and sisters, you are not alone
Locked up inside you are the key
A prisoner of your own design
Take a chance step outside
You'll see
Just prisoners of our own design

Unlock your, unlock your, unlock your fucking cage
Unlock your, unlock your, unlock your fucking cage
