

Signal Fires

Strung Out

I fall asleep with a loaded gun
I keep my secrets with a knife
I'm bringing hell and I love no one
I owe allegiance to the night

I am the walking dead, fully automatic
Don't look me in the eye
Well, this world will know that I exist when I show them

A life to destroy
With every fucking breath, I'm barely holding on
Shots fired
And I'm your civil war, your defenses are not sound

My manifest will implicate everyone
And I'll bring the slaughter to the lamb
I'll make the noise, I'll be the news of the day
I'll bring my philosophy to light

I am the walking dead, fully automatic
Don't look me in the eye
Well, this world will know that I exist when I show them

A life to destroy
With every fucking breath, I'm barely holding on
Shots fired
And I'm your civil war, your defenses are not sound

The side effects include the amputation of my heart and of my soul
They gotta pill for genocide
They gotta pill for suicide
Got one to wash all of the hurt away
Got one to block the sun
To hell with everyone
Your indifference enables me

A life to destroy
With every fucking breath, I'm barely holding on
Shots fired
And I'm your civil war, your defenses are not sound

We are the walking dead
Fully automatic, lost in the static
We are the walking dead
Fully automatic, locked in the static
