

Imperfect World

Stryper

Inside a world that's flawed
Darkness finds a way
Where imperfections dance
And dreams lie in decay
With shattered pieces of hope we've held so tight
Within the brokenness
Of our relentless fight
Our relentless fight

In, our imperfect world
The canvas of our scars
Inside the twists and twirls
We all are shooting stars

Amidst the chaos
Struggles will unfold
In every storyline
And every tale untold
We stumble and fall
In our quest for grace
But when we're standing tall
We will find our place
We will find our place

In, our imperfect world
The canvas of our scars
Inside the twists and twirls
We all are shooting stars, oh
Stars

In, our imperfect world
The canvas of our scars
Inside the twists and twirls
We're shooting stars

In, our imperfect world
The canvas of our scars
Inside the twists and twirls
We all are shooting stars
We're shooting stars
