

Unforgivable

Stryper

Deep in our hearts
Where pain resides
The weights leaving marks
That scars cannot hide

Rising above
The storms that we make
The key to the soul
The soul to be saved

Is to forgive
The unforgivable
Means we live
And healing begins to show

Bitterness, a crutch
It clings like a cloak
The poison of hate
Has to be revoked

It's never about
Excusing what's wrong
There's only one way
For us to be strong

Is to forgive
The unforgivable
It means we live
And healing begins to show
Show

Rising above
The storms that we make
The key to the soul
The soul and heart to be saved

Is to forgive
The unforgivable
It means we live
And healing begins to show
