

Destroyer

Stuck Mojo

It's not always what you say but what you don't
The silence speaks volumes but they won't
Living day by day or pay to pay
And that's the way they expect you to stay
On welfare roles to keep control
Another painkiller to in the villa
Those in power keep them all on a fix
Then they burn bridges so the truth will fix

This is for the takers, the haters
Who walk around like saviors
The liars, deniers
Who come to steal your fire
Burning down, you never built a goddamn thing in your life
You just feed upon the blood and sweat like parasites

Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you

Demons everywhere you can feel it in the air
The leaders don't care and it's not about what's fair
Moral re-education, a promised salvation
Narratives they sculptured, disease it's a culture
Checking the community we're lacking unity
Those who rule to the crowd just to keep power
But in this final hour
Cut the bluff, enough's enough
This is for the takers, the haters
Who walk around like saviors
The liars, deniers
Who come to steal your fire

Burning down, you never built a goddamn thing in your life
You just feed upon the blood and sweat like parasites

Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you

There's a battle waging on and you gotta choose a side
It's inescapable now there's nowhere left to hide
Do as they say but not as they do
That's the message they present to you
Respect is everything but people believe anything
Hidden their agenda, they praise and surrender
As it was written, now it is said
Welcome to the generation of the living dead

This is for the takers, the haters
Who walk around like saviors
The liars, deniers
Who come to steal your fire
Burning down, you never built a goddamn thing in your life
You just feed upon the blood and sweat like parasites
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you

Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Destroyer, destroyer, this time I'm coming for you
Oh, destroyer
